ABSTRACT

Data on tuition and other student costs for the State University of New York (SUNY) are presented, along with a brief narrative summary. Other student charges include books and supplies, transportation, and personal items. Information is provided on in-state and out-of-state tuition charges for graduate and undergraduate students, 1980-1985; trends in student tuition by program level and other charges 1963-1985; student activity fees by type of facility (university centers, university colleges, health sciences centers, specialized colleges, agricultural technical colleges, state-operated institutions, community colleges, and all SUNY institutions); other required fees (health insurance, placement fee, and accident/health insurance); room and board charges/allowances; charges to residence hall students by type of institution; and other student costs by New York region and specific location for commuter students, students living in campus residence halls, and students living in noninstitutional housing. The data show that the average tuition increase over the past 15 years is about 17 percent per year for undergraduate in-state students, compared to 31 percent per year for out-of-state students. INTRODUCTION

Development of Student Charges Data File

This report initiates the first in what will constitute a series of bound publications presenting the results of the annual survey of Institutional Characteristics and Basic Student Charges for institutions of the State University of New York. While these data have been collected for many years, previous summaries were transmitted using the Statistical Release vehicle; please refer to Release No. 50 for 1983-84, No. 37 for 1982-83, No. 27 for 1981-82 and No. 12 for 1980-81.

As noted in the memorandum transmitting the annual data request and instruments for 1984-85, State University campuses were informed of the development at Central Staff of an A.P.L. computer file containing reported campus data of annual student charges and costs for the years 1980-81 to date. With this development, selected new summaries are possible for such student costs as those by planning region; see tables 84/1769-1770. In addition, various institutional comparisons and summaries previously done for just selected campuses or done on a manual basis are now produced automatically, making the results available to the entire SUNY community for use during studies of possible impacts of proposed changes in Federal and State financial aid legislation.

The student costs data file facilitates trend studies and comparisons. It also provides Central Staff a mechanism for preposting current common charges such as tuition, University fee and room rate for State-operated institutions, thus improving data accuracy and reducing respondent burden. In addition, the data file also permits quick and easy internal and external validity checking of campus figures reported to Institutional Research using such items as:

- information on tuition rates reported by community colleges to the Central Staff budget office
- current costs for an institution compared to prior costs reported for that expense category
- current and prior costs for an institution compared to those reported by institution types or institutions in the same planning region

The following annual student charges/costs data elements for 1980-81 to date now reside in the file:

1. student tuition

   full-time undergraduate in-state and out-of-state

   full-time graduate in-state and out-of-state

INTRODUCTION

2. University fee

3. student activity fee

4. other required fees

For three cohorts of students: those in campus residence halls, those living in non-institutional housing in the community, and commuter students living at home, the following six categories are separately maintained:

5. room charge/allowance

6. board charge/allowance

7. books and supplies

8. transportation

9. personal

10. miscellaneous

Inasmuch as data for earlier academic years were collected at a higher level of aggregation, our automated student costs data file includes data beginning with 1980-81. While much trend and comparative information is presented in the nine tables and three figures comprising this publication, several summary observations were noted and are recorded in the next section to facilitate your use of these data.

We would like to thank those individuals on the campuses who are responsible for providing this office with timely and accurate data. The collection of this information required their extensive cooperation and continued effort. Our gratitude is also extended to this office's statistical staff for producing selected displays; the secretarial staff of Mses. Carol Hart, Vikki Mazzone and Margaret Rings who were responsible for the proper distribution of the publication.

SUMMARY

Tuition Charges

A quick review of tables 85/409-410 reveals that the present ratio of in-state to out-of-state tuition is 1:2.37 for undergraduate students and 1:1.74 for graduate students. While the rate of increase in student tuition has not been constant and in fact tuition has not increased at all in some years, the average increase over the past 15 years approximates 17% per year for undergraduate in-state students and 31% per year for undergraduate out-of-state students. For in- and out-of-state graduate students, average annual increases have been 18% and 36%, respectively.

Other observations worth stressing pertain to the "Other Costs" portion of student expenses. Please note that the instructions which have always accompanied the Basic Student Charges survey request that the campus response be coordinated with the institution's Director of Financial Aid to help ensure the reported data are accurate and reflective of the amounts used in constructing a student budget.

Student Activity Fee

With the exception of the Statutory Colleges, every SUNY institution with undergraduate students levies some type of student activity fee. For 1984-85, the average charge varied as follows:

University Centers:	$ 99
University Colleges:	84
Health Sciences Centers:	79
Specialized Colleges:	85
Agricultural & Technical Colleges:	96

State-operated Institutions
Average (Mean):	$ 87
Low (Empire State):	12
High (Binghamton):	123

Student Activity Fee (continued)

Community Colleges
Average (Mean):	$ 70
Low (Broome, Niagara County & Orange County):	50
High (Fashion Institute):	150
All SUNY Institutions
Average (Mean):	$ 79
Low (Empire State)	12
High (Fashion Institute)	150

The average student activity fee (SAF) charged graduate students at State-operated institutions was less than that for undergraduates. While 29 such campuses levied an undergrad SAF, just 14 colleges charged graduate students such a fee. The average graduate student activity fee was just $65 and varied from a low of $27 at Buffalo Core and Health Sciences Center to a high of $100 at Brockport and Fredonia.

Other Required Fees

This category of student expense existed for just five State-operated institutions during 1984-85 and was related mainly to student health insurance:

1.	Buffalo (Center)	$137 - health insurance
2.	Buffalo Health Sciences Center	137 - health insurance
3.	Maritime	95 - health insurance; barber fee
4.	Canton	10 - placement fee
5.	Farmingdale	34 - accident/health insurance

Of the 30 community colleges, 21 reported some type of "other" required fee. These institutions were not queried as to the components of this charge.

Room and Board Charges/Allowances

While tuition and required fees are fixed charges for all students who attend the institution, the residence hall room charge reported by the campuses represents the standard charge for a double room. The room "allowance" for students living in non-institutional housing in the community and students living at home who commute represents a standard amount used by the campus Financial Aids Office in constructing a student budget.

Reported allowances for "Other Student Costs" of books and supplies, transportation, personal, etc. also reflect cost factors used in constructing a student budget. Although such costs reflect estimates in some instances, they are typical for full-time, single, financially dependent students for one academic year. The information presented in this section on room and board charges/allowances reflect these approaches and definitions.

Charges to Residence Hall Students

For residence hall students at State-operated institutions, the room charge is fixed and is determined by the State University Board of Trustees. Meals are typically provided by a campus affiliated faculty student association (FSA). Of the 31 State-operated institutions, three are non-residential colleges: Empire State College, the College of Optometry and the College of Technology at Utica/Rome. Another two offer residence facilities but no meal plan: Downstate and Upstate Health Sciences Centers.

Students attending any one of the five statutory colleges secure room and board through the endowed college counterpart. Room and board for students attending the College of Environmental Science and Forestry are secured from Syracuse University. Following is a comparative outline of combined room and board charges for the past five academic years. These amounts represent the standard charge for a double room plus the modal charge to a typical student for board:

Academic Year	State-operated Institutions		Statutory Colleges		Envir Sci & Forestry
	Amount	% Inc	Amount	% Inc	Amount	% Inc
1980-81	$1,903	-	$2,410	-	$2,560	-

Displays of the components of average "other" student costs of books and supplies, transportation, personal, etc. are presented by institution and institution type in table 84/1767 and by New York State planning region and residence hall/non-institutional housing/commuter student status in tables 84/1768-1770. Questions concerning these displays or suggestions for their improvement should be directed to Kathleen Kopf of this office.

[a]Excluding the Statutory Colleges at Cornell and Alfred.

[b]Tuition charges for Optometry (O.D. program) were calculated the same as Law and Pharmacy prior to 1977-78.

[c]The figures shown are for a full-time student for an academic year; part-time student fees are scaled accordingly. In addition to the college fee, a student activity fee may be levied on the students by their own action. Whether or not there shall be such a fee is determined by student referendum on the campus. From 1977-78 through 1978-79, a student health service fee ranging from $12.00 to $20.00 was collected at all State-operated institutions except for Empire State and Optometry.

[d]An average was not calculated for this period.

[e]The figures shown are the standard room rates; specific charges may vary according to accommodations.

[f]Not all campuses have meal plans; of those that do, some have seven-day plans and others five-day plans. Exact charges vary among campuses. The figures shown represent an average charge for a seven-day plan. Average board charges for the last five academic years, 1979-80 through 1984-85, have been modified to reflect corrected data submitted by the campuses and to omit from the calculation of the average those charges to Forestry and Statutory College students.

[a]Source: NCES 2300-1A, Survey of Institutional Characteristics of Colleges and Universities, 1984-85 Academic Year and Basic Student Charges Supplement (84-13).

[b]The amounts shown under the category "Tuition and Required Fees" represent charges to full-time students for the entire academic year. For Community Colleges, the out-of-state tuition rate may be up to three times the in-state rate. Tuition and required fees are set by the State University Board of Trustees for all institutions except the Statutory Colleges and the Community Colleges. The table on pages 3 to 6 displays the history of the tuition rates and required fees for State-operated institutions as established by the State University Board of Trustees. Apparent discrepancies between the attached table and the foregoing trends of tuition and required fees reflect additional fees required at the local campus level. The rates of the Statutory Colleges at Cornell and Ceramics are set by their respective Trustees after consultation with the State University Board of Trustees. While the rates of the Community Colleges are established by each respective county, they cannot exceed $1,350 for full-time resident students.

[c]In providing information for the category "Room, Board and Other Costs," campuses were requested to coordinate their response with the institution's Financial Aid Officer so as to reflect the cost factors used in constructing a student budget. The data for "Other Costs" exclude tuition, required fees, and resident student room and board charges but include books and supplies, transportation, and personal expenses such as clothing, laundry, cleaning and entertainment. More detailed information about these variable costs is presented in table 84/1767.

[d]The $370-400 room & board costs for commuter students at Stony Brook Core & Health Sciences Center (HSC) for 1980-81 reflect budgeted costs for lunch only. The $400 and $800 under the room and board category for the past five years at the HSC is for lunch only. At the HSC, the "other costs" figures have been revised to reflect those for undergraduate students in a 10-month program. Costs differ for undergraduate 9 and 11-month students as well as for dental and medical students.

[e]Effective with 1980-81, the room, board and other costs reported for Empire State College reflect expenses for a twelve month academic year.

[f]Empire State College began admitting graduate students in Spring 1984.

[g]"Other Costs" at Maritime includes an average cost of $300-$400 per year for uniforms.

[h]Maritime does not have non-resident students.

[i]Included within the "Other Costs" component for three Cornell Colleges is a $100 travel allowance for students from New York State. Higher travel allowances are budgeted for students from other states and Canada. The travel allowance for students in the College of Veterinary Medicine is $300 where the student is from New York or a contiguous state.

[a]Source: NCES 2300-1A Survey of Institutional Characteristics of Colleges and Universities, 1984-85 Academic Year and Basic Student Charges Supplement (84-13). Instructions for completing the report recommended that enrollment contacts coordinate their response with the institution's Financial Aid Officer so as to reflect the cost factors used in constructing a student budget. While the data for the "Other Costs" category reflect estimates in some instances, these costs are typical for full-time, single, financially dependent students for one academic year. Tuition, required fees, and student room and board charges/costs have been excluded from the "Other Costs" category.

[b]Effective with 1980-81, the room, board and other costs reported for Empire State College were for a twelve-month academic year.

[c]An additional $170 was allowed at Purchase for 1980-81 and 1981-82 for supplies related to performing arts programs.

[d]These costs for Stony Brook Health Sciences Center have been revised to reflect the costs for undergraduate students in a 10-month program. Costs differ for undergraduate 9 and 11-month students as well as for dental and medical students.

[e]The "All Other" costs at Maritime is for uniforms and represents an average annual cost.

[f]Transportation costs at three Cornell Colleges were budgeted at $100 for students from New York State. Higher travel costs were budgeted for students from other states and Canada. In addition the travel allowance for students in the College of Veterinary Medicine was $300 where the student was from New York or a contiguous state.

[g]Transportation costs reflected are minimum range values at the following community colleges: Corning, Fashion Institute of Technology, Jefferson and Mohawk Valley.

[h]The 1980-81 figures for Erie Community College reflected costs for North Campus students. While costs for students at the other two campuses varied, it should be noted that from $60 to $300 was budgeted for City Campus students for uniforms and equipment.

[i]Depending on major, for 1980-81 books and supplies were budgeted at $500 to $1,000 at the Fashion Institute of Technology and at $200 to $375 at Mohawk Valley Community College.
